

2009 Roberto Clemente World Series

Sponsor and Tournament Information

The 2009 AABC Roberto Clemente World Series begins on July 23rd for the ninth consecutive year at Richard Craig Park in McDonough, Georgia, the host City for this prestigious sporting event. The first game of the '09 Series starts at 5:30 p.m. on Thursday evening, the 23rd. Games will continue on Friday from 9:30 a.m. to Noon and starting again at 5:30 p.m. with the last game of the evening having a start time of 8:00 p.m. On Saturday, games kick off at 10:00 a.m. and Noon. Two evening games are scheduled on Saturday at 6:00 and 8:00 p.m. Depending on wins/losses, the championship game could be played Saturday night. Should an "IF" game come into play, the championship game would begin at 2:00 p.m. on Sunday, July 26th, rather than on Saturday night, the 25th. The reason for the schedule change would be the Series' double elimination format resulting in a play-off game having to be played on Saturday night pushing the final game to Sunday afternoon.

Why play baseball for four sweltering days in July in McDonough? Why travel across country, north to south, south to north, and all the way from an island to the mainland? Why? Because these eight teams of 7 and 8 year olds have practiced, struggled, sweated, scrapped, sacrificed, and fought their way to the top in region play. Now, they have earned the right to play in an AABC World Series. Does it get any better than that? Isn't this what dreams are made of?

McDonough is poised once again to extend a gracious welcome to these young athletes, their coaches, and all those accompanying them on their journey in July to this historic City. They come for the purpose of playing some awesome baseball and, hopefully, laying claim to the title of 2009 Roberto Clemente World Series champions. McDonough will be on display throughout the Series. The City will be looked over, scrutinized and evaluated. Let us not be found lacking in the southern hospitality for which we are so famous. Once again, we join together to make memories for a lifetime in McDonough in July.

Series tickets will be available at the McDonough Welcome Center two weeks prior to the start of the World Series.
